

2024 Robert Gilman Scholars^{The}

The $3000 Robert Gilman scholarship honors musician Robert “Bud” Gilman, Franklin class of 1935. He graduated from the University of Washington and Pacific University, with degrees in music, business, and counseling. His versatile piano style was well-received in the music community. His love for the New Orleans sound led him up and down the coast participating in preservation jazz festivals. The Robert Gilman scholarship is awarded as a tribute and celebration to a man of music

All information is confidential and will not be shared with outside agencies.

Scholarship Criteria and Application

*Applicant plans to Major or Minor in Music at an accredited school

Application is due February 20, 2024

- Resume – list and date of academic awards, honors, high school activities, employment or family support role
- 300–400 word Personal Statement sharing your musical growth, challenges,
- Reference: name/phone/email of a non-family member who knows your character
- Letter of Recommendation from a non-family member (teacher, employer, etc.)
- Your Transcript Unofficial is fine)
- One reference; phone number/email address of a person

FILL OUT THE APPLICATION ONLINE OR RETURN APPLICATION TO THE MAIN OFFICE ALONG WITH ALL ATTACHMENTS.

Name: (as on transcript) _____

Address: _____

Phone number: _____ E-mail: _____

Parent/Guardian name: _____

Parent phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Number of people in household: _____ Family yearly income: _____

Which racial/ethnic group(s) do you most closely identify? _____